

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.

Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.

Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.

I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.

God demands that we worship him according to His commands.

Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.

Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.

David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.

Worshiping God when Tragedy Hits

Points to Consider

1. A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy.
2. A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.
3. A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy.

A wealthy man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Job 1:1-5 - Even though Job possessed great earthly wealth, he never lost sight of his need for God's spiritual

_____.
Job made sure his _____ knew how important it was to right with God.

Job 1:18- Job's first instinct was to worship God during the tragic loss of his entire fortune and all his children. Job could do this because he knew who God was and he knew that his life was a blessing from God.

He recognized _____ was God's and he owned _____.
Job did _____ blame God!

Job 2:6-10 - Job had incomplete knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, but he did understand the importance of accepting _____ in a godly way.

Job 42:1-6 - Even though Job started out with a love for God and a good understanding of who God is, _____ gave him an even _____ perspective of who God is and why He deserves worship in all circumstances.
I suspect that Job's worship became more meaningful for him _____ the tragedy.

A religious man was instructed to worship God during tragedy

Lev 10:1-7

God insists that those who come before Him _____ Him as He deserves.
God demands that we worship him according to His commands.
Aaron was to honor _____ over his sons.

Lev 10:8-11

God spoke to Aaron _____ and told him not to drink intoxicating drink while serving in the tabernacle.
Drinking wine would _____ him from distinguishing between what is holy and what is unholy.

A powerful man willingly worshiped God during tragedy

Ps 103

David knew who God is and knew who he was. That's at the core of worship.
David _____!

2 Sam 12:13-15 So David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord also has put away your sin; you shall not die. 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion

to the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." 15 Then Nathan departed to his house. NKJV

_____ can be worship. Confession acknowledges who God is, who we are, and that we have sinned against Him.

2 Sam 12:15-23

After God struck the child with an illness, David _____ with God with fasting. He laid on the ground all night before the Lord.

As soon as David knew that the child was dead:

- he arose
- washed and _____ himself
- changed his clothes
- and went to the house of God and _____.

David knew that God is _____, and he held on to the hope that God would allow the child to live.

2 Sam 15:24-33

When David was running from his own son, we was willing to _____ God's decisions. Through this terrible ordeal, David still _____ God.