

Evangelism in the Book of Acts

Acts 18

Points to Consider

1. We should consistently reason with and persuade people
2. We should seek out good people who are misinformed
3. We should not take rejection personally

We should consistently reason with and persuade people

Acts 18:4-5

Paul reasoned and _____ that Jesus is the Christ.

Acts 19:8

Here we see that Paul was reasoning and persuading concerning the things of the kingdom of _____.

Let's go back to the meaning of verse 5

Acts 19:26-27

We should seek out good people who are misinformed

Acts 18:24-28

Apollos was _____ in the Scriptures. He knew the old law. Even though Apollos had great knowledge, his knowledge was incomplete. Once he learned the complete truth, he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, using the _____ to prove that Jesus is the Christ.

Acts 19:1-7

Paul met a group of twelve men who, like Apollos, only knew about John's baptism. They knew the Christ was coming, but they did not know that _____ was the Christ.

Once they were persuaded that Jesus is the Christ, they were baptized.

We should not take rejection personally

Acts 18:6-8

When the Jews in Corinth rejected Paul's attempts to persuade them, he placed the _____ of the rejection squarely on the shoulders of the ones doing the rejecting.

Acts 19:8-9

In Ephesus when the Jews rejected the gospel and started causing trouble, He _____ from them.

Luke 10:1-12

We should pray that the Lord will send out laborers to teach the gospel who have the _____ to know when the seed is not taking root. Jesus told His disciples that if they enter a city that rejects the teaching of the kingdom, they should tell the people of the city the _____ for rejecting God's message. We should _____ take rejection personally.
